

Questions of Home Education Part II – Out-of-Door Geography

1. Show that small things may suggest great in pictorial geography.

2. What should children be taught to observe about the position of the sun?

3. What, of clouds, rain, snow, and hail?

4. Show how, by pacing, a child should get the idea of distance.

5. What is the first step towards a knowledge of direction?

6. What practice should a child have in finding direction?

7. What compass-drill would you give him?

8. How should a child get the notion of boundaries?

9. When should he begin to make 'plans'?

10. What geographical ideas should he get from his own neighbourhood (area)?
